

ADEENA CHAMBERLAIN

Adeena joined OlyFilm in 2020 and became more active in the fall of 2022, spending the past year as Chair of the Community Outreach Committee while also involved in multiple OlyFilm productions as co-screenwriter, production designer, art director, location scout, and/or BTS photography. She has IMDb credits for Twisted (2023), Shared Coins (2023), and Drips (2024).

With a Bachelor of Fine Arts and a Master in Teaching, Adeena has been teaching visual arts, digital arts, and digital photography in local public schools for the past 15 years. Living in Olympia for 30 years, Adeena is passionate about community engagement and increasing creative opportunities for diverse youth, families, and individuals in all aspects of filmmaking to support and expand this vital and vivacious facet of the Olympia arts scene.

